Topics to Avoid in an Interview

Daria O'Brien

Executive Recruiter, Financial Search Associates

Thursday February 11, 2010

Shasta College Health Science University Center
1400 Market Street, Room 8218
Redding, CA 96001

Program: 12 Noon to 1:30 p.m.

Cost: $0 Members $10 Nonmembers

Topic Every person you interview could be a potential fit for your company, however they also represent a potential lawsuit. It all depends on what happens between the time they sit down across from you and the time they leave your office. Protect your company from lawsuits by creating and sustaining a streamlined, effective, and productive model for candidate interviews.

Speaker Daria O'Brien graduated from Barat College with a Bachelor of Arts. She then pursued graduate studies at Roosevelt University. Upon completing her studies, Ms. O'Brien worked for six years with Ajilon Finance, then cofounded the executive placement firm, Financial Search Associates (FSA). FSA recruits U.S. executives, partnering with international firms such as Price Waterhouse Coopers, Hewlett-Packard, and Apple Computers.
